Collegiate Membership

of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh

For holders of MRCP (UK), MRCPCH or MRCP (Edin)

COLLEGIATE MEMBERSHIP

The RCPE is one of the world's foremost providers of medical education and information. From our base in Edinburgh, we provide an ongoing programme of postgraduate medical examinations, education and training for qualified doctors who wish to pursue a career in specialist internal medicine.

With more than 10,000 Fellows and Members in 91 countries, we are ideally placed to assist you in achieving the highest standards of clinical practice in your chosen career. We take advantage of electronic communication to ensure access to our educational programme wherever our Fellows and Members live and work. As a Collegiate Member you will be warmly welcomed into the RCPE and, as many Fellows and Members have already found, the fellowship within the College is likely to lead to friendships and professional links that can last a lifetime.

Direct benefits include:

- Free access to the RCPE's online general medical Continuing Medical Education (CME) programme, including a new section for trainees
- Free access to our series of archived, web-streamed symposia presentations
- International peer and public recognition through the use of the MRCPE post-nominals
- Preferential rates for attendance at the rolling programme of RCPE update symposia, covering general/acute medicine and the medical specialties
- Free attendance at the annual Trainees and Members' Symposium
- Quarterly print issues of The Journal of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh
- Access to the members' section of the RCPE website, offering regular College news and items of interest to the profession

- Free registration for the Continuing Professional Development (CPD) scheme run by the RCPE and the other UK Royal Colleges of Physicians, which provides an online system for recording and evaluating CPD activity
- Access to the RCPE Historic Library, which hosts one of the most important medical library collections in the world. A new on-request service is available to provide PowerPoint images from this unique collection to illustrate and complement your presentations with a historical perspective.
- The ability to directly influence the RCPE and medical training through representation on the Trainees and Members' Committee, College Council and the Joint Royal Colleges of Physicians Training Board (JRCPTB)

In addition to benefiting from educational and professional support, Collegiate Members are entitled to hire the College's facilities for personal functions at a significantly reduced rate and stay in the College's residential accommodation at very reasonable rates.

Who is eligible?

Holders of MRCP(UK), MRCPC and the old MRCP Edin diplomas are all eligible to become Collegiate Members of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh.

Subscription rates 2009/10

Full details of the current graduated scale of Collegiate Membership fees, offering reduced subscription rates during the first two years, are provided below. Those wishing to become Collegiate Members should pay the appropriate joining year subscription upon application.

STATUS	UK RESIDENT	OVERSEAS RESIDENT
Joining year 2009/10 (pro rata)
Those joining July – 31 December 2009	£60	£60
Those joining January – 30 June 2010	£30	£30
Reduced-rate year (2nd year of membership)	£90	£90
