Welcome
At the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh, we are proud to support our Members as they progress throughout their careers. We offer a range of benefits to empower you to succeed as a physician as well as giving you the opportunity to help us improve standards and patient care.

Membership of our College is available to doctors who have passed the MRCP(UK) or MRCPCH exam. We support trainee doctors as they progress through specialty training, but we also have much to offer doctors who choose other careers, including staff grade doctors and general practitioners.

We look forward to welcoming you to our College.

Professor Derek Bell, President
The Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh is committed to promoting educational opportunities to enable physicians to provide the highest standards of care to patients.

How membership can help you

We have led the way in providing a range of services that can be accessed wherever you are and whenever you need them, through our webstreaming of events and Education Portal.

We are the collective voice on professional and medical policy issues.

Our strong trainee focus is reflected in our Trainees & Members’ Committee, one of the most active and influential trainee groups in the UK. The Committee represents the views and experiences of medical trainees to all stakeholders.

Help us improve standards and patient care

Getting involved with our College will also give you the opportunity to shape policy and improve education and training for the next generation of doctors by:

- Influencing College and external policy
- Hosting local sites for webstreaming our Evening Medical Updates
- Helping to develop and deliver our educational programme

Join today and find out why we are becoming the College of choice for trainees.
