

The Scope of RCPE Quality Governance Collaborative

- Neutral centre for debate and development in the field of quality governance
 - School of Governance in alliance with the WHO
 - RCPE forum for Quality Governance
- Alignment of excellence in governance practice across different sectors – nationally and internationally
- A suite of symposia/ debates lead by RCPE and hosting leaders from the international governance and clinical community
- A dedicated Quality Governance Fellowship
 - A unique national and international fellowship in governance in alliance with the WHO
 - 4 UK cohorts and 2 international cohorts
 - Excellence in Governance learning set - for Chairs & Executive directors
- QGC RCPE / WHO - a developed joint working definition of excellence in quality governance
- Advises governments and Boards on quality governance issues
 - Governance Boards/ organisational/ clinical reviews by invitation
- Annual international Quality Governance RCPE conference
 - Edinburgh
 - Manchester
- Hosts an international governance learning set, aligned to EHMA

RCPE/WHO joint definition of Excellence in Quality Governance:

The means by which all institutions and organisations involved in the design and delivery of healthcare translate health policy into clinical practice and management in order to improve the quality and efficiency of healthcare.

'The ability to ask the right questions and to implement the right mechanisms to ensure the organisation discharges its duties in line with its purpose and with focus on good clinical practice.'

Right Question – Right Answer – Right Time – Right Outcome

