Women in Leadership 2025: Developing tomorrow's leaders

Thursday 19 June 2025

08:55 – 17:00

Online or in-person: Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh
11 Queen Street, Edinburgh EH2 1JQ

Topics include:

- Learning across sectors: leadership, rights and inclusion
- Empowering from intersectionality to activism
- Gender-based violence
- Intersectionality with race
- Supporting neurodivergent talent
- Assertiveness
- Active bystander training
- Supportive male leaders
- How to get into leadership
- 'How I did it' personal journeys into leadership

This conference aims to empower and elevate women leaders across the globe. Open to everyone, at all levels, we particularly welcome men to join us to take part in this conversation. With inclusivity at its core, the programme includes a session on supportive male leaders to foster meaningful collaboration.

Featuring a collection of experts, interactive workshops and networking opportunities, this event will provide hands-on tools and practical knowledge to advance your leadership journey. Attend in person for an immersive experience or join virtually to stay engaged from anywhere.

Most recordings of talks available to delegates via catch-up on our Education Portal for 28 days post-event.
