

The Journal of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh wishes to expand its pool of peer reviewers.

Role

- You would critically appraise manuscripts as assigned by the editors.
- You would make recommendations to the editors regarding the acceptability or otherwise of the manuscript assigned.
- Your constructive comments would help authors revise their manuscript appropriately and enhance its value.
- You would be mentored by the editors for this peer review process.

Benefits

- Being a volunteer in contributing to the evidence based medicine.
- Opportunity to be up to date and active academically by reviewing a variety of manuscripts.
- Your contribution would be acknowledged in a personal letter from the Editor-in-Chief and your name would be listed in “Thank you reviewers” page in the last issue of the Journal every year.

Eligibility

- From any subspecialty of Internal Medicine.
- Open to all Fellows and Members.
- Excellent opportunity for trainees and junior/early career consultants.

Let us know!

Please drop in a mail to editorial@rcpe.ac.uk indicating area of interest within internal Medicine and a recent CV.

Get in touch with the Editor-in-Chief, Dr Vinod Ravindran for any queriesdrvinod12@gmail.com